Race 7

We directed the Clerk Of Scales to speak to Javier Matias about the horse Gold N Glitter, who was acting up all the way from the receiving barn, left the paddock early, and appeared unsettled and very washed out. Gold N Glitter ran third, beaten a long nose for the place, but appeared to labor mightily late in the race with Mr. Matias taking a strong hold a few jumps before the wire. Upon contact with the Board, Mr. Matias said she was on the wrong lead, and flat and just didn't seem to feel right.

Respectfully Submitted,
